

MURPHY CLUB CONSTITUTION

MEMBERS SHOULD CONSIDER IT

MEETING CALLED FOR MONDAY TO ADOPT THE NEW DOCUMENT.

Temperance Workers Desire to Start the Coming Year in Good Shape and be in Position to Continue Their Work to Better Advantage and With Wider Scope.

At a meeting of the present board of directors of the Francis Murphy Temperance Club No. 1 held at the club rooms last evening, the following Constitution was passed and ordered to be printed so that the members of the Club and all pledge-signers may have a chance to read and consider it before final adoption.

Members and pledge-signers are earnestly requested to be present at a general meeting to be held on Monday next, Dec. 30th, for the consideration and adoption of the Constitution under which the Club expects to start the new year.

Article 1.—Name.—This organization shall be known as the Francis Murphy Temperance Club No. 1.

Article 2.—Object.—To promote temperance, to provide a free reading room, free entertainments and a place where people may come together for social purposes and mutual encouragement.

Article 3.—Membership.—Any person who having signed the Francis Murphy Pledge and desiring to become a member of the Club, may upon the payment of one dollar, have his name entered on the roll of the Club. The sum thus paid shall be considered as dues for one month, after which time he shall be liable for dues at the rate of one dollar for every three months.

Any person signing the pledge may become an associate member who shall have voice but no vote, and neither hold office, and need not pay dues.

Persons may be elected an honorary member by a two-thirds vote of the members present at any business meeting of the Club and they shall have voice but no vote and neither hold office, and need not pay dues but may contribute toward the support of the Club either in money or service.

Article 4.—Officers.—The officers of the organization shall be a President, 1st Vice President, 2nd Vice President, a Secretary, Treasurer and a Board of Directors consisting of the President, Secretary and five other members. The term of office shall be six months.

Article 5.—Duties of Officers.—It shall be the duty of the President to preside at all business meetings (ladies' meetings excepted), to appoint all committees, approve all bills and countersign all records of meetings. Either of the Vice Presidents will preside at meetings and act for the President during his absence.

The Secretary shall keep a full and complete record of all meetings, approve all orders for goods, and collect all monies due to the Club turning over the same to the Treasurer and taking a receipt therefor, and also perform in general the duties of his office.

The Treasurer shall receive and expend the money received by the Club. He shall keep a list of donors and the amounts donated. He will pay all bills approved by the President or Vice Presidents, and shall keep books necessary for the transaction of all business connected with his office, and will make monthly reports to the Club, to the press, and a copy posted in a conspicuous place in the Club rooms.

It shall be the duty of the Board of Directors to determine all questions of expense outside of ordinary expenses, to examine all bills and order their approval, to direct expenditures, examine and audit books and records, and to provide rules for the government of the Club. By a two-thirds vote of the members of the Board of Directors they may declare any office of the Club vacant, when they are convinced that cause for such action exists. Two-thirds of the Board of Directors shall constitute a quorum for transacting business.

Article 6.—Employee.—The salaried employee of the Club shall be a Janitor, who shall be chosen by and be under the control of the Board of Directors. In addition to performing the duties of Janitor he shall have power to receipt for dues in the name of the Club and be recognized as the collector of the Club under the Secretary. He will at all times keep the Club rooms in a neat and tidy manner, and perform such other work as may be required.

Article 7.—Meetings.—Business meetings shall be held every second and fourth Monday of the month at 7:30 p. m.

Special meetings may be called by the President upon the written request of five members in good standing.

Article 8.—Order of Business.—1. Call to Order. 2. Reading of the Minutes. 3. Reading of Communications, Bills, Notices, etc. 4. Reports of Committees. 5. Report of Officers. 6. Collections. 7. Unfinished Business. 8. New Business. 9. Good of the Club. 10. Adjournment.

Article 9.—Violation of the Pledge.—Any member after continued violation of his Pledge shall forfeit his membership in this Club, but all members are pledged to make every possible effort to restore such member, as long as he is willing to fight against temptation.

Article 10.—Amendments.—These articles may be amended by a majority vote of the Club, or any article entirely eliminated and another inserted therefor in the same manner, notice of such amendments having been given at any previous meeting.
